SECTION 30

- (1) Subject to this section, the rent payable under a residential tenancy agreement may be increased by the owner by notice in writing to the tenant specifying the amount of the increased rent and the day as from which the increased rent becomes payable, being a day—
 - (a) not less than sixty days after the day on which the notice is given; and
 - (b) not less than six months after the day on which the tenancy commenced, or, if the rent has been increased under this section, the day on which it was last so increased,but otherwise the rent shall not increase or be increased.
- (2) The right of the owner to increase rent in accordance with sub-section (1) of this section—
 - (a) is not exercisable in relation to an agreement that creates a tenancy for a fixed term during the currency of that term unless the agreement provides that the rent may increase or be increased; and
 - (b) in any case, may be excluded or limited by agreement between the owner and the tenant;
 - (c) A notice of increase of rent that has been given in accordance with this section and that has not been withdrawn by the owner varies the residential tenancy agreement to the effect that the increased rent specified in the notice is payable under the agreement as from the day specified in the notice.
- (3) A notice of increase of rent that has been given in accordance with this section and that has not been withdrawn by the owner varies the residential tenancy agreement to the effect that the increased rent specified in the notice is payable under the agreement as from the day specified in the notice.
