Fact Sheet

Proof of identity of applicants for an electrical or gas worker's licence

March 2009

The Licensing Office of EnergySafety WA maintains a database of licensed electrical and gas operatives and ensures that the information is accurate and confidential, protecting operatives against the possible fraudulent use of their name.

Applicants for an electrical or gas worker's licence in Western Australia must prove their identity. This fact sheet explains the requirements for an applicant to prove his or her identity.

Before an electrical or gas worker's licence will be issued, applicants must prove their identity by presenting as many documents from the following lists so as to score a minimum of 100 points. The documentation provided may be a photocopy of the original document.

At least one document provided must show the signature of the applicant.

Name of the signatory verified from one of the following:

70 POINTS

- Birth Certificate / Birth Card issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages
- Australian Citizenship Certificate
- International Travel Document / Current Passport
- Expired passport which has not been cancelled and was current within the preceding 2 years
- Other document of identity having the same characteristics as a passport (E.g. this may include some diplomatic documents and some documents issued to refugees)

Note: Additional points cannot be scored for more than one document.

Name of signatory verified from one of the following (but only where they contain a photograph or signature that can be matched to the signatory)
