

Links Between Your First Job and the Curriculum Framework

Your First Job is relevant to secondary school learning areas that require students to learn about or enter the workforce.

It is a resource for teachers and students of Society and Environment, corresponding to the following Learning Outcomes:

- Investigation, Communication & Participation
- Culture
- Natural and Social systems
- Active Citizenship.

It is also a resource for teachers and students of Career and Enterprise, corresponding to the following content areas:

- Career Management
- Corporate Citizenship

Your First Job is of particular relevance to the Year 11 and 12 Structured Workplace Learning Courses of Study and Endorsed Programs.

Correspondences between the structured workplace Learning Course of Study units and Your First Job student Modules are illustrated in the table below.

Workplace Learning Course of Study
Unit 1 WPL	Unit 2 WPL	Unit 3 WPL	Unit 4 WPL
YFJ Module 1 Section 1 Types of work	YFJ Module 1 Section 2 Accepting a job	YFJ Module 2 Section 4 Location of work	YFJ Module 2 Section 5 Superannuation & Tax
YFJ Module 1 Section 1 Applying for a job	YFJ Module 1 Section 4 Apprenticeships & Traineeships	YFJ Module 2 Section 3 Employee entitlements	YFJ Module 2 Section 6 Unions
YFJ Module 3 Section 1 Behaviour	YFJ Module 1 Section 2 Hours of work	YFJ Module 2 Section 2 Payment for work	YFJ Module 4 Section 1 Termination of employment
		YFJ Module 3 Section 2 General problems	YFJ Module 3 Section 3 Bullying, harassment & discrimination
			YFJ Module 4 Section 2 Outstanding entitlements

Your First Job's Student Exercises are linked to the Curriculum Council's Employability skills list. The exercises are designed to allow students to develop and practice skills in:

- Communication
- Teamwork
- Problem solving
- Self-management
- Learning, initiative & enterprise and
- Safety and Health.

More generally, Your First job is a teaching resource that corresponds to the following Curriculum Framework Overarching Learning Outcomes:

- Communication
- Investigating and using information
- Thinking critically
- Exploring ideas, opportunities and solutions
- Active Australian citizenship
- Cultural interaction and
- Recognising rights and responsibilities.